INFORMATION

The Imposition of Tourist Tax in Bali from 14 February 2024 Based on the Governor of Bali Regulation No. 36 Year 2023

The Governor of Bali, Wayan Koster revealed the policy of collecting tourist tax for foreigners when visiting Bali. This policy was supported by the enactment of the Governor of Bali Regulation No. 36 Year 2023 concerning Procedures for Payment of Levies for Tourist, and is effective from 14 February 2024. The policy aims to support Bali's cultural and environmental preservation efforts.

Starting on 14 February 2024, tourists who are visiting and entering Bali will be charged a one-time payment of the international tourism tax of Rp150.000 or USD 10, in addition to the visa fee. The tourist tax is not only applied to adults, but also applies to children.

Before tourists' arrival in Bali, there are several steps to be followed with the detail as below:

1. Open the website of "Love Bali" through <https://lovebali.baliprov.go.id/>
2. Click "Pay Tourist Levy" and fill-in the data information
3. Choose the preferred payment method such as bank transfer, virtual account, and QRIS
4. Once the payment has been successful, the Love Bali System will provide notification that has been paid (paid notification) and proof of payment to foreign tourists in the form of digital proof of payment.
5. The receipt of payment must be scanned using a tool scanner (scanner) when entering the arrival gates

In addition, the tourist tax payment exemption applies to:

- a. Diplomatic visa holders
- b. Ship crew
- c. Limited Stay Permit Holders (Kartu Izin Tinggal Terbatas/KITAS)
- d. Permanent Stay Permit Holders (Kartu Izin Tinggal Tetap/KITAP)

For the subjects of the tax exemption, the document of identity must also be scanned using a tool scanner (scanner) when entering the arrival gates.
