The Directorate General of Immigration Announcement on the New Online Services for the Extension of Stay Permit

The Director General of Immigration released a Press Release regarding the announcement of the new online service for an extension of Stay Permit, the online service new feature has undergone a trial period and is effective from 31 December 2023.

The Director General of Immigration continues to enhance their services through digitalization strategies, and this new service was created to facilitate and expedite the stay extension process, eliminating the need to visit the immigration office. The process will be done without stamping the passport and the approval is sent directly to the applicant's email.

According to the Director General of Immigration, Silmy Karim stated that foreigners who are residing in Indonesia can now apply for an online extension of stay permit through the website of evisa.imigration.go.id.

There are several types of Visas that can be extended online including:

1. Tourist visas (index C1);
2. Medical treatment visas (index C3);
3. Government affairs visas (index C4);
4. Short course visas (index C9);
5. Business visit visas (index C11)
6. Extend Tourism Stay Permit (index C1A1);
7. Extend Medical Treatment Stay Permit (index C3A2);
8. Extend Government Business Stay Permit (index C4A3);
9. Extend Short Course Stay Permit (index C9A3); and
10. Extend Exhibitor Stay Permit (index C11A4)

Through this new online feature, the Director General of Immigration hopes foreigners can enjoy a comfortable stay in Indonesia with a seamless experience in processing Visa and Stay Permit.
