Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation (MAECI) Announcement for the Company Medical Supplies Regarding the New Phase of COVID-19 Pandemics in South-East Asia

We would like to inform you the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation (MAECI) announcement regarding the current situation that South-East Asia is going through, facing a new phase of the COVID-19 pandemic, characterized by a worrying increase in infections and deaths, especially among the most vulnerable sections of the population. The commitment of the local authorities in the fight against the pandemic clashes with the limited means available, both in terms of vaccination doses and medical supplies.

In this context, the Ministry is receiving several requests for help from the ASEAN countries. Among these, in particular, Indonesia, which sent the list of necessary medical supplies to the EU institutions and the Embassies of the Member States present in Jakarta. The Ministry has decided to probe the availability of Members, Partners and all contacts of the Italy-ASEAN Association to take charge of the purchase of the required material. In addition, here are the lists of items and quantity for the Needs Assessment for Indonesia as of 7 July 2021:

1. High-Flow Nasal Cannula/HFNC with quantity: 6.703
2. ICU ventilator with quantity: 685
3. Syringe Pump with quantity: 2.696
4. Infusion Pump with quantity: 2.696
5. Patient Monitor with quantity: 2.696
6. Pulse Oximeter with quantity: 6.703
7. Patient Bed with quantity: 21.464
8. Oxygen concentrator portable with quantity: 3.070
9. Oxygen Generator (300-400 LPM) with quantity: 167
10. Oxygen Cylinder + regulator with quantity: 38.550
